BETHANY'S FRIENDS

In Wheeling Hope the Proposed
Wheeling-Bethany-Wellburg

ELECTRIC LINE WILL BE A GO.

With it There Would Be No More
Talk of Moving Old Bethany College to Pittsburgh or Elsewhere, and it Would Be Practically a Wheeling Institution—Franchise May Be Awarded Next Saturday.

"Old Bethany" college has a legion of friends and admirers in Wheeling, who have heard with regret that the institution may be removed from the banks of the classic Buffalo to that overgrown and smoke-begrimed village Pittsburgh, and the announcement that, in the event of the construction of the proposed Wheeling, Bethany and Wellburg electric line, the college would remain where it is, has been received with pleasure in this community. This sentiment alone will bring to the promoters of the road the well wishes of thousands of Wheeling people.

It is realized that the electric line would place the college in such close relations with the world that it would be regarded as a Wheeling institution. Without doubt the college would enjoy a "boom," such as it hasn't experienced for years. It is said that very likely Wheeling would see most of the college athletic events after the completion of the road, and the college football team would be made Wheeling's foremost eleven, with its games played here.

The Brooke county court meets again Saturday, when Messrs. Miller and Paul, of this city, will ask for the franchise for the construction of the road out Buffalo from Wellburg to Bethany, and from Bethany to the Ohio county line. Later, if successful there, the promoters will ask for franchises from the Ohio county commissioners along the Bethany pike to Altenheim. It is said to be likely that the cars of the proposed road would enter the city over the line of the Wheeling & Elm Grove road, working under a traffic arrangement.

The Truth in a Nutshell.

It is curious to know how many kinds of people there are in a world. The most curious people are those who want to pay a high price for everything they buy in order to be convinced that it is good. This class of people get hit so hard sometimes that it is a month or so afterward before they take a tumble to themselves, and find out that they have been victimized, and paid nearly twice as much for an article as their neighbor. Do not be deceived by bombastic advertisements, discount sales, enormous stocks and other nonsense. The old reliable wholesale and retail Jeweler, C. C. Genter, 1083 Main street, is the man who sells goods on a close margin. He is celebrated for this. He is known for miles around Wheeling. He carries the largest stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Spectacles, &c., in the state. It will pay you to visit him before you make a purchase. Everything is so fair and square at Genter's store that you will be convinced of the fact that you have made the mistake of your life in not going there for everything you need in his line. His grand army of customers are now in motion and he is doing the largest business in many years. If you want anything in the Jewelry, Watch, Clock, Silverware or Spectacle line, go to Genter. You will save money every time. He is without doubt the only Low Priced Jeweler in Wheeling.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Jeffries-Sharkey fight pictures were shown to a Wheeling audience at the Opera House last night by the Reynolds Kinetoscope Company, and they were delightfully received. The films are the most realistic ever seen here, reproducing the finer details with marvelous distinctness. The third round was pretty hot, and the audience expressed its approval by enthusiastic applause. The newspaper accounts are somewhat at variance with the pictures as to Sharkey's tactics in rushing Jeffries round, for the pictures show the big fellow's superiority throughout. Illustrated popular songs interspersed the programme. The pictures will be reproduced again to-night.

"Other People's Money."

Hennessey Leroy will bring his successful comedy, "Other People's Money," to the Opera House, Monday, December 11. The play in question is the purest of farcical comedies. It has a story full of interest and a number of characters that have not only been clearly but very strongly drawn. It has now been before the public for a couple of seasons and the financial success that has attended its presentation throughout the country is the best evidence of the fact that the amusement seeker will not only appreciate but support a meritorious play. For the third year Mr. Leroy will offer us the best acting company outside of himself yet seen in the play. This then is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the attraction, for the work of the star himself needs no advance puffery.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

The biggest audience that has ever witnessed a popular priced attraction at the Grand Opera House, saw the De Vonde Stock Company in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," last night. There was hardly a foot of standing room left when the curtain went up. The immense audience remained until the close and saw a very artistic performance. His support was excellent. So many persons were unable to secure seats that it has been decided to repeat "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" Friday night. To-night's bill will be the thrilling melodrama, "Crimes of New York," interspersed with its comedy paragraphs and clever specialties.

"In Atlantic City."

The "Willis Bros.," in "In Atlantic City," will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and Wednesday matinee. It is the great laughter-show of the nineteenth century and has, by its odds, proven the most successful farce comedy of the present time. It will be presented by an exceptionally strong company of artists, among them Frank M. Willis, the intangible eccentric comedian; John and Estelle Willis, James Leslie, the Littlefield Sisters, Ely and Harvey, McShane and Farrington, three Helston Sisters, H. McComas Watts, Mlle. Ethel Tilton, the sweet singer of Maine; Landis and Delanty and others.

UNION SCHOOL PUPILS

Desire to be Allowed to Participate in "Dewey Day" Parade, February 22—Application to be Made to the Board of Education.

The pupils of Union School—Lieut. Doddridge's alma mater—are desirous of taking part in the "Dewey Day" parade on February 22 next, and in furtherance of their desire along this line, Principal Hammond is to appear before the board of education or before the committee on teachers and schools to solicit the permission desired. The pupils are especially desirous of taking part in the parade in order to do honor to young Doddridge, who is the ideal of nine-tenths of the youngsters attending old Union. The Union boys and girls have already contributed the handsome sum of $10 to the Intelligencer Doddridge sword fund, all of the contributions being small, and a number of them are still saving their pennies for future contributions.

Persons desiring to contribute to the sword fund, may leave their donations at the Intelligencer counting rooms, or mail to the Intelligencer Publishing Company. All subscriptions will be promptly acknowledged through these columns.

Thoburn Post No. 72, G. A. R., of Martin's Ferry, has accepted the invitation extended by the committee of Holiday Post, of Wheeling, to participate in the old soldiers' division of the "Dewey Day" parade here, February 22, and appointed Messrs. William Sloan, George B. Barr and Reese Furber as its representatives on the G. A. R. committee in charge of this division.

THE SWORD FUND.

To the Public:

We endorse the initiative action taken by the Wheeling Intelligencer, both in inviting Admiral Dewey to take part in the ceremonies attending the setting of the Fort Henry commemorative tablet and in proposing the raising of a fund by popular subscription for the purpose of purchasing a suitable sword to be presented to Lieut. John S. Doddridge, U. S. N., in recognition of his services contributory to the great victory won by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay.

Whereas the Intelligencer proceeded at once to receive subscriptions to the Doddridge Sword Fund, to the amount of $50, same to be expended by the Fort Henry Tablet Committee in purchasing a sword to be presented to Lieut. Doddridge, in connection with the Fort Henry ceremonies, February 22, 1900.

Whereas the Intelligencer has received the following contributions to the sword fund, to-wit:

UNUSUAL OFFER

Of Which Holiday Buyers Will be Quick to Take Advantage.

Sheff Bros., the jewelers, are giving 20 per cent discount on all their immense stock of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, etc. This announcement will be greeted with great satisfaction by the purchasing public, coming as it does at this season of the year when people are buying their holiday presents, as it enables them to buy at just four-fifths of the regular price.

The reliability of this firm is too well known to require comment. When they say they will sell goods at a reduction of 20 per cent, it means that they will keep their word to the letter, thus selling at a lower price than many other jewelers buy for. The stock of Sheff Bros. is complete in every department, and a great selection is offered.

The firm buys for cash, and always gets the lowest possible prices, being thereby enabled to offer choice articles at astonishing low figures. And now comes this announcement of 20 per cent off this regular price.

This remarkable offer will be quickly taken advantage of by careful buyers, who appreciate this cut in prices from a most reliable firm.

Vance Names Committees.

President John L. Vance of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, has appointed the following committee to present to the congressional committee on rivers and harbors the resolutions adopted by the association at its recent meeting in Louisville: George H. Anderson, of Pittsburgh; Col. W. W. Hite, of Louisville; Albert Bettinger and E. P. Wilson, of Cincinnati; Howard Hazlett, of Wheeling; C. J. Murphy, Evansville, and C. M. Fletcher, Mayville. He also named John L. Vance, F. A. Laidley and E. P. Wilson as delegates from the association to the national board of trade, to be held at Washington in the near future.

Only Two Ways Of Making Soap.

One from the fresh Green Leaves of the Tasmanian Blue Gum Tree.

All the Rest from Grease, Fats or Oils Combined with an Alkali.

THE NEW SOAP.

A Perfect Skin Healer and a Delightful Refreshing Toilet Article.

NO OTHER LIKE IT.

The first skin and toilet soap ever manufactured by the new process is proving a revelation to soap users. This is not surprising when you remember that heretofore it has been thought impossible to make soap of any kind without fats, grease, oil and alkali. These ingredients have been the base of all soaps from time immemorial, and have been collected by street scavengers, or purchased from incinerating plants which burn the refuse of our cities; not an agreeable thing to think of, but nevertheless true. To be sure many of these are nicely perfumed, and no doubt made as pure as possible; but if the alkali is strong enough to kill the grease and oil, it destroys and hardens the skin; if the reverse, the pores of the skin become clogged and disease follows, all the medication in the world cannot prevent it—what a delightful change then to have a soap free from these ingredients, and made from the fragrant leaves of the Tasmanian Blue Gum Tree, these leaves being acknowledged by the medical profession as the most harmless, as well as the most powerful germ destroyer and skin purifier known.

A bath with Hyomel Skin Soap is simply delightful. It leaves the skin soft, cool and refreshed, imparting to it the peach-like bloom of health. It is guaranteed to cure all diseases of the skin. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail, price 25 cents.

THE RAILROADS.

The stealing of cars has become so rampant that there is a growing impression in railroad circles that the time is at hand when the matter must be taken into the courts for a remedy. Transportation officials are learning new tricks. When a thousand new cars are started westward and stopped before reaching destination on another road than that of the purchaser, and loaded to be sent east, railroad officials reach the belief that the cars of their own lines should not be allowed to go off their own tracks. And this led the Southern road to take the action they did regarding their cars coming north of the Ohio river, and officials of roads who have allowed their cars to go off their own lines are worried over the extent to which their cars are being appropriated by other lines without any regard for the wishes or necessities of the owners. Car service superintendents say this evil was never before so prevalent. This is in a measure due to the fact that the car shortage has never before been so pronounced, or the business offered so tempting, and the poor roads, if they get a car from a more important line, seem to go on the principle, says a car service superintendent, that the big road has plenty of cars any way, and they will hold the car in their service as long as possible for local business. Some officials take strong grounds in this matter, and say the evil must be checked promptly, and that unless something is done the trouble will grow to such an extent as to make its eradication very difficult.—Indianapolis Journal.

The Fast Freight Lines.

Rumor is current again that the fast freight lines are to be abolished. The Pennsylvania and the Vanderbilt lines are said to be the agitators, and the rumor says an agreement has been entered into by these lines by which these traffic companies are to go out of existence. It is claimed that the inter-line business can be handled without the fast freight lines, by this agreement, and a considerable saving to the management of the trunk lines.

Changes on the W. & L. E.

Tuesday afternoon, General Superintendent Stout, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie, sent out a circular making a few slight changes in the operating officials of the two divisions. When the Wheeling first absorbed the Cleveland, Canton & Southern, and the latter became the Cleveland division of the Wheeling, there was a circular issued which made C. A. Van Dusen the acting superintendent of the Cleveland division. The circular removes all the restrictions now, and makes him the superintendent in fact. His offices will continue to be at Canton, as they have been since his appointment. In order to facilitate matters a little, a circular announcing that the office of J. N. Merwin, superintendent of the Toledo division, will be moved from Toledo, where they have been hitherto, to Massillon. It is said that this move is made for the purpose of getting all of those offices closer together. The office of the general superintendent is now in Canton, and with the second division at Massillon all of the offices will be in easy reach.

Absorbed by the Pullman.

The consolidation of the Pullman Palace Car Company and its rival, the Wagner Palace Car Company, into one concern was ratified at Chicago Tuesday, at a special meeting of the stockholders of the Pullman company. In approving the action of the directors the stockholders voted to increase the capital stock of the Pullman company from $24,000,000 to $74,000,000, the increase to be for the purpose of purchasing the property of the Wagner Palace Car Company. It was also voted to change the name of the company from the Pullman Palace Car Company to the Pullman company. An increase in the number of directors from seven to eleven was also voted, and the following directors were elected to the board: William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Pierpont Morgan, Frederick Vanderbilt and W. Seward Webb.

Society.
For the second time since Governor George W. Atkinson became its honored occupant, the executive mansion of West Virginia in Charleston, was, last night, the scene of a brilliant wedding, in which, as on the former occasion, a daughter of the governor became a bride. In the presence of the most immediate members of the family, Miss Florence Atkinson was united in wedlock to Mr. Samuel Brashear Avis, of Charleston, assistant district attorney for West Virginia.

The ceremony was performed in the east drawing room of the mansion. The groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. J. B. Field, of Charleston, entered from the rear drawing room. He was followed by Miss Nell Atkinson, sister of the bride, who was her maid of honor. Next came the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. The little party advanced to the east side of the drawing room to an arch made of smilax and laurel, festooned and surmounted with a white dove. There the bride and groom were met by Rev. Millard F. Compton, pastor of State Street M. E. church, by whom the marriage rite was pronounced most impressively. The other members of the bride's family present at the ceremony were Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beury, the latter a sister of the bride; and Mr. George W. Atkinson, Jr., the younger brother of the bride. Her other brother, Major Howard Atkinson, is with the American army in the Philippines.

After the ceremony the mansion, elaborately and beautifully decorated throughout, was thrown open to the 1,600 or more guests who had been invited to the reception. In the receiving line were Governor and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Avis, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beury, Miss Pollack, Miss Rice, Miss Rinehart, Mr. J. B. Field, Mr. E. R. Davis, of Charleston, and Mr. George W. Atkinson, Jr. From the drawing rooms the guests passed to the dining room, where an elaborate luncheon awaited them. This was served under the charge of Mrs. Braxton Avis, of Staunton, Va., mother of the groom; Mrs. H. L. Prichard, Mrs. Heber Noyes, Mrs. J. H. Gaines, and Miss Amelia Donnelly. In the library the coffee urn and punch bowl were presided over by Miss Nell Atkinson, Miss Fannie Bibby, Miss Cora Hays, and Miss Nellie Egbert. The decorations were a marvel of beauty and taste. The two drawing rooms were a solid mass of holly and mistletoe, the mantles being banked with ferns and flowers of various kinds. The other reception rooms were decorated with equal profusion, while in every nook and corner were chrysanthemums, the illumination, the brilliancy of the electric glare was softened by the use, in addition, of wax candles, over which hung dainty pink shades, throwing a mellow glow over everything. In the dining room the decorations were no less exquisite. The table covering was of white organdie, with deep fonce of valences inserting and lace over pink silk. The table was lighted with candles and set off with ornaments. Huge candelabra, with shade of white silk skillfully shaped into an imitation of the rose, shed a bright light over all. The table was set with candles, mince, ginger, olives, and other delicacies. The wait was decorated with the four corners of the chandelier. Around the table ran smilax and maiden hair ferns.

The costuming was in brilliant harmony with the decorations. The bride's gown was of Spanish lace over white satin, with applique parme velvet all over, and bertha of old Dutch lace, made decolette. She wore a full bridal veil, caught with three tiny Princess of Wales feathers. She wore neither gloves nor flowers, but carried a point lace handkerchief. The bride is a petite brunette.

Miss Nell Atkinson, maid of honor, wore white mull over white satin, with fichu effect, decolette, en traine. She wore no flowers, but also carried a point lace handkerchief.

Mrs. C. C. Beury wore white organdie over white silk, trimmed in black velvet, the skirt being trimmed with bands of five graduating widths of black velvet ribbon, with one deep accordant flounce. The waist was decolette, with boue effect, trimmed in white satin and old lace, and having magnificent collar of pearls and diamonds and diamond sunburst.

Miss Henrietta Rinehart, of Wheeling, wore turquoise blue satin, trimmed in guipure lace and silver spangled net white chiffon en traine.

Miss Alice Pollack, of Chicago, wore a handsome decolette robe of black spangled net, trimmed with coral pink satin-souls en traine.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome presents. They left on an early morning train for Richmond, to be gone two weeks. They will tour the south, returning by way of Washington.

This evening, between the hours of 8:30 and 10, Colonel and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien will receive in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, Jr.

To-night, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, the Philharmonic trio will make their initial appearance of the season. The programme is a very attractive one, and Messrs. Schocker, Blumenberg and Meyer will doubtless be greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience.

Yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Harry Cecil Whitaker, at Beho Point, occurred the Twentieth Century
